“ To Ruth, Deb, Linda, and the Grandchildren,

Glenn and I were saddened to see Lester's obituary; however, we realize it was his time to move on to his heavenly home. Lester was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. He was so proud of all of you. He was faithful to Christ and the church, and faithful to whatever he undertook. Since Lester was in the choir almost the full time we directed the choir at Florin (32 yrs), we were so grateful for his willingness to share his musical talents. However, he shared his talents many years before that, as well. He was a man we could count on and readily added humor to our rehearsals. Lester was an exemplary model for carrying on a good life. Blessings to all of you. Saver the good memories.
