Frances Lorraine Book of Mount Joy went to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 10, 2021 after a brief stay at Paramount Senior Living. She also has two nieces: Dawn Sorg and Lori Berkey. She was preceded in death by her sister Erma Slessman (husband Larry). The family wishes to thank friends and family who have prayed, visited, and cared for Frances over the years, especially during the past several months.

“ Dear Mike, Tony and families,

I am a first cousin to your father Jerel. Your grandmother was my Aunt Eva. I did not get to know Fran as well as I wish I had, but we did have some good times together. My husband Glenn and I want to send you our sympathies at this time. I know you will miss her because she was a special blessing to all of you. Now she is reunited with Jerel whom she missed so much. May the Lord bless and strengthen you all!

“ I remember first meeting Fran and Jerel at Christian Union Brethren in Christ Church near Garrett, Indiana. It didn't take long and they both became very special to me. They were both very special people and I greatly cherish the opportunity of knowing them and having them as my Pastoral Family, as well as the friendship we shared.

Mike, Kay, Tony, Heather, Chelsea, Rochelle, David, Robert, Timmy and Families, you are in our prayers, for the comfort that only God can give you.
