“ We will not forget the sparkle in her eyes and her enjoyment of life, nor her endless hospitality. What a spread she could provide for anyone who stopped to visit. Sad to realize that generation is now gone and harder yet to realize we are now officially the oldest generation in the Geiman family! Blessings on you as you say goodbye.

“ Everything is private! We will be burying mother on May 2. She had more extensive plans in place but they can not be fulfilled. Thank you for your thoughts! Lots of memories of our family gatherings. Lots of wisdom gained from past generations. Blessings to you both! SANDY Donnie, and family

“ Thank you Sandy for sharing. Your mother is the very last survivor of her generation in the GEIMAN side. What a great part of the family she was. Thinking about her right now brings back a flood of memories of your mom and dad. The extended family get togethers are something I shall always cherish. As children we enjoyed many many carefree days having the assurance that all was well. We were so very fortunate and blessed. With travel restrictions we undoubtedly will not make it back for the memorial service. Please, however, keep us informed in regard to plans. Blessings and our love, Bob and Julia
