“ To my Aunt Miriam, cousin Kay and Jerry Ray - So sad to hear that Uncle Pete passed, one of my favorite Uncles, always asking me if I was "happy" and how I was doing!! Will never forget the many hours we would spend at your place in Mt Joy, with Daddy and Mother and Grandma Herr! He is at peace now and rejoicing with his Mom, Dad, brothers and sister Mary Bell and my Daddy!!! Prayers for all of you! He will always be in the memories we have had with him here on earth and in our hearts!

“ To Aunt Miriam, Jere, Kay, Mike and the rest of your family, It saddens me to hear of Uncle Pete's passing. I will always have fond memories of him, especially when he helped me with my 52 Willy's Jeep (it's a Herr thing) or the family reunions (when we had one) or walking through the doors at Slate Run Fly Shop wondering if he was up on the mountain sitting on the porch (Potter County- God's Country), how fitting, now he is on a higher mountain with God. My heart goes out to you and your family in this time of grief.
