“ I can't wish you back because you are gone. How do two people become such close friends over such strange circumstances. We were full of tough love and believing in these kids that were always so much better than us! My heart aches as I have nobody who will understand. My mind is angry as I don't get why you aren't here anymore. My anger flairs when people say the wrong thing. My heart breaks for you daughter who is and always will be your heart. I will forever miss being able to be 100% me. I hope we meet again. Until then, I will do the best I can to be the person I should be.
I will always miss you and I send all the best to Alyssa and all your friends and family. We were the lucky ones!

“ I am so very sad to hear the news of Sherri's passing. I met Sherri years ago thru Alyssa while they were going through Alyssa's Cancer battle. Sherri and Alyssa made my day every time I saw them with their super positive and upbeat attitudes! I would like to extend my sincere condolences to Alyssa, Phil, Judy, and the entire family. Sending hugs to all of you.

“ Anyone who spent more than 5 minutes with Sherri immediately felt her generous heart. Working with her the past 5+ years, I learned the power of humor in the workplace. She taught me early on not to take myself too seriously. This is a heartbreaking loss, and my prayers surround Sherri's family and friends as they grieve. Sending love and hugs.

“ I am beyond shock reading this. Thoughts out to her family. Sherri and I worked at Dauphin Deposit Bank on Derry St, Harrisburg in the collections department. We had a lot of laughs, so many memories. I had just moved to the area, she was friendly to me. She also had no problem speaking up which was the best part of her. Rest In Peace, Sherri.

“ It is difficult to think of just one memory as I have so many... Sherri has a kind soul, but not afraid to stand her ground! I have always admired the love she has for her beautiful daughter, her face would light up any time she spoke about her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.. Sherri will be missed so very much..
Please try to stay strong and know.. she will always be with you! I am pretty sure she will make her presence known!!
Sending my blessing and prayers,
