“ My father Frank E. Bendrick and Al Whalen were life long friends, and also teammates on the Minersville High School football team, which won the 1949 Eastern Conference Championship. It is apparent that Mr. Whalen and my father were very proud of that small town accomplishment throughout there lives. My dad was always proud to tell me that they used black coal dust to mark the lines on the football field because of the snow storm the night before. As a child, I remember visiting the Whalen house with my father and experiencing the joy between two good friends. My father passed away last week, which led me to track down Mr. Whalen, to let him know of my dads passing. I was sad tobread that Mr. Whalen already knew about his friends passing and welcomed him.

“ Dear June and family, Having lost so many friends and family members over the past year, I was devastated to hear of Al's passing. I had been wanting to get in touch with Albert for months, but while caring for aging parents, ourselves, and dealing with the Covid restrictions, something always got in the way. "Uncle Albert" will always be cherished as a long-time friend. I will especially remember him as a morning person with a twinkle in his eye. He was always enthusiastic and encouraging over the years, and his love and devotion to his family were always on display. Instrumental in having me return to RCA after a 6-7 year sojourn, we were regular lunch buddies, Sandy and I are deeply sorry for your loss and will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I love remembering your dad's mischievous smile and how all your dogs loved and followed him around your house. He also loved to brag on you, Scott & Marisa and explain to me how wrong my politics were/are. He will be missed. Sending you love and peaceful thoughts. XOXO
