

Alicia Marie Houseal

August 28, 1969 - March 20, 2025

Alicia Marie Houseal, 55, of Columbia, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on Thursday, March 20, 2025 at Penn State Milton Hershey Medical Center. Born in Minnesota, she was the daughter of Thomas Anderson of Mount Joy and the late Nancy (Bocken) Anderson.

Alicia was a graduate of Lancaster Mennonite High School. A loving person who always put others first, Alicia was an animal lover, especially turtles. She enjoyed collecting different rocks and healing stones.

Alicia is survived by two children, Kailey Mowrer of York and Kyle Mowrer of Elizabethtown; two sisters, Joy O'Neill of Elizabethtown, PA and Cynthia Thomas, wife of Brian of Surprise, Arizona, and a brother, David Anderson, husband of Chizuruoke of Phoenix, Arizona.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.

“ So heart broken to hear of Alicia's passing. She was a neighbor who became a friend who was thoughtful, great to spend time with and made me laugh. I'm so glad I have those memories - she will be remembered and missed. Bridey Hannold
