“ Anita and Jay lived next door to us in Sarasota. They were so kind and caring to myself and my two sisters. It was always a happy day when we saw their car in the driveway and knew they were back in the neighborhood!

Jay will be in our thoughts and prayers. Heather Miller

“ Sending prayers of comfort to Rachel and the family. The Wolgemuths lived across the street when I was growing up and I frequently played at their house. I remember Mrs. Wolgemuth as a kind and gentle person. She organized “The Good News Club” for neighborhood children in her basement.

“ Anita is best known to me for her life as a godly wife to her husband, Jay, who was my boss-mentor at Lancaster Bible College. Their spiritual example through these many years has encouraged our marriage to live more Christ-like. Anita was a woman of God who took seriously her roles as a wife, mother, and grandmother and has been my example to follow in her ways, as she followed Christ. Much of my prayer life and card ministry comes from her encouragement as she spoke of her love for her family and concern for others. Her legacy is her family who know Christ as their Savior and follow in His ways.

I will miss her gentle spirit, and still smile over all our fun memories of LBC picnics at our home, especially picturing her and Jay resting comfortably together in our hammock. What a blessing to have known her!

Love always, Sharon & Dale Mort
