

Anne S. Graham

December 30, 1955 - December 28, 2022

Anne S. Graham, 66, of Mount Joy, passed away at home, with her daughters and grandchildren by her side after a long and courageous 8 year battle with Metastatic Breast Cancer.

She was born in Queens NY, and was the daughter of the late Christian E. Boccaccino, and Anne T. (Stoltz) Boccaccino. Anne was married to the love of her life James T Graham Sr, whom she lost unexpectedly January 4th 2020 who she shared 26 years of marriage with.

Anne spent decades working at Colonial Metals as a purchasing agent, also where she met her soulmate Jim. She enjoyed traveling with her children, sharing her amazing cooking with everyone, maintaining a picture perfect home, decorating & crafting with her grandchildren, cards with her friends, motorcycle rides with her husband, and in her younger years she enjoyed her corvettes, and dancing on Broadway. Most of all she cherished the time spent with her family. Anne loved animals and will be greatly missed by her three cats, Dice, Chester and Willow.

Christmas was her favorite pastime and in all our years together our Mother always made it a special one. We will never forget the magic and how hard she worked to make it more beautiful each year.

A note to our dear Mama,

The daughters went to their Mother.

They picked her up and rocked her back and forth, back and forth, back and forth.

And they sang this song,

I'll love you forever

I'll like you for always

As long as I'm living, our mommy you'll be.

Happy heavenly first Birthday Mama. We will miss you until the end of time.

We are now the wind beneath your wings.

With love,

Sabina & Rebeca

“ Aunt Anne You were my favorite Aunt growing up, I will always treasure those memories. I remember when grandma and grandpa would visit on the weekends, I literally would beg them to ask my mom your sister to let me sleepover so I could see you. My mom was a tough cookie but grandma always tried her best and on those occasions when my mom gave in I would pack so fast Lol! I remember all the drives you took me on in your corvette and smoking kool cigarettes. Oh, and all the disco clubs you would take me to too watch you dance. It was just all so glamorous to me! But, my favorite times with you were hanging out in your room trying on your clothes and talking about everything and anything. You were my bright light growing up! You will be Forever loved and missed. Rest in peace Aunt Anne!!
Love Laura ❤️🙏❤️

“ Annabelle was a very dear friend and i will miss our coffee get togethers,her bright lipstick smiles,and her caring heart for me and my family. Ann was always concerned about people and animals, she loved any animal she saw! Iam so thankful and blessed that she was in my life. Our daughters were best friends in school,and Ann was there for us through challenging times. I am glad i was able to hang with her during a chemo treatment recently and while there,we made a funny music video. No matter what she was going through or how bad she felt,God gave her the strength to keep going and to help others. I said she was like the energizer bunny..God kept her going ,.so thankful for the time He gave her....she was a beautiful person who loved her family so very much...she enjoyed going to her grandbabies bike races and she was so grateful for Bec and Beans help,especially at the end. Thank you girls for allowing me to be there days before she left us. She wanted you to know how much she loves you and her hopes were that her grandbabies would always remember her. Christmas time was so special to her and ...WOW,she decorated so beautifully! THANK YOU,JESUS for giving me a special friend like Ann. I will miss her loud new york accent,her hugs and smiles,her coffee drop offs,her DQ runs with our youngest son....but i know that if she could return back to us,she'd tell everyone that heaven is real,its beautiful there,no pain,no sadness...believe Jesus died for your sins and is alive today. Ask Him to live in your heart and life and ask Him to forgive you of your sins....and if you trust Him to do this, you can live in Heaven with Him someday.. .and you can see me,Ann. Ann recently told me that when we are in heaven,if i feel a swift kick in the butt,it would be her behind me....im looking forward to that kick! Im praying for the family and friends of my friend,Annabelle. Thank you to everyone who made her days brighter and lightened her loads..may we all be a little kinder and more patient with each other because of knowing Ann:.) Love,Laurie (Loleeta,as Ann would say)

ME

First and foremost, there are no words to describe how I am feeling. Anne was always a second Mom to me growing up and over the last several years, became a close friend herself. Blood or not, she was family, along with Beca! I have many memories that I will cherish forever. One in particular is when I slept over in highschool and I had just gotten out of the shower and she thought I was still and came and opened the door because the steam would ruin the wallpaper. Well there I stood, full glory. I quickly slouched down on the side of the toilet trying to cover myself. Ha-ha. I will miss cleanliness and her strongwill just to name a few. I am blessed to have had her in my life. To Bean and Bec, please know that I am here and I love ya'll.
