“ To the Rutt and Engle family: Sending deepest condolences on the passing of Audrey. I waited on the Engle family regularly at Country Table Rest in the 1990's, usually on Thursdays for lunch. They were always pleasant and smiling. She will surely be missed by many.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Rutt and Engle Family. I always enjoyed our desk side chats in the office. I was lucky enough to work at EPC, to know Audrey and chat about life and family. I will miss her visits and that beautiful smile.

“ When I came up from Brazil Audrey became my bridge to the American culture. Someone filled me in that going out for pizza at Ocean City could constitute a move on Richard. Over the years we smiled a lot when on furlough because she protected my nativity and weakness over her own reputation. God used her to float this poor boy from Amazon living into Youth For Christ and the American way of life. Her reward will surprise us all. Enjoy heaven my sister.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I remember Audrey's ready smile and our conversations about graying hair and gravity, as we both aged gracefully. I hope that knowing that you will see Audry in heaven is a comfort. How glorious when all tears will be wiped from our eyes!

“The news shocked me. She and Dick were just at a volleyball game my daughter played in and it moved me that they would come out for a game they had no grandkids in. My son played with their grandson and I always enjoyed her support for not just Wyatt but all the kids. She was still much more than sports. She was wonderfully hospitable and very friendly. If you didn't know about Engle Printing you would have no idea how successful she was. There were no airs about her. Part of her greatness was her humility. I know, if I was shocked her family must be staggered. My heart aches for Dick, Julie, Daryl and the grandsons. The promise of Heaven feels almost cliché at a time like this but it is the enduring hope that keeps deep grief from insanity. God is in control and he is good.

Sometimes this becomes complex but the truth, though messy, is the truth. Audrey is where she set her heart. She responded to God and he called her home. The most powerful verse in the Bible says only "Jesus Wept" I say "only". Measured in characters "Jesus Wept" would probably not meet the minimum fee for a classified ad in the Merchandiser. But, God wept... and not for the dead but for the grief stricken living. God wept! God weeps for Dick, Daryl, Julie and all the family
