

Barbara S. Klepper

May 7, 1938 - December 23, 2018

Barbara Shilling Klepper, 80, of Mount Joy passed away on Sunday, December 23, 2018 at Moravian Manor. She was the loving wife of The Reverend David E. Klepper, Jr., with whom she shared over 58 years of marriage. Surviving in addition to her husband, David, are her four children: David R. (Alane Bernhard) Klepper, Susan K. (Stanley) Combs, Julia E. (Michael) Houseal, Kathryn J. (Grant) Magar. Grandchildren: Lauren Houseal, Samantha (Houseal) DiPerri, Michael Houseal II, David Combs, Rachel (Combs) Young, Delaney Klepper, Quinn Klepper, Riley Klepper and Dawson Magar. Great-Grandchild: Griffin Young. Brothers: Stanley (Shirley) Shilling and Curt (Mary) Shilling. She was preceded in death by her brother The Reverend Fred (Marlene) Shilling and her sister Ruth (Barry) Haas.

Born in Johnstown, she was the daughter of the late Reverend Russell and Flora Shilling. Barbara graduated from Susquehanna University with a degree in Social Work. One of her professional accomplishments was establishing the Resource Center for the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Barbara was foremost a partner in ministry with her husband and a loving mother to her 4 children and 9 grandchildren. She was a strong, faithful servant of God, who did not hide her faith, but lived it, shared it and believed in the promise of a heavenly Father for life eternal. Family was very important to Barbara, including her many church families. She was a surrogate mother to many children and youth with whom she related as neighbor and Sunday School teacher.

Throughout her life, Barbara enjoyed vacationing with family, reading, sewing, knitting and other crafts. She loved music, singing in the church choir, playing the piano and French horn. Her legacy of love and caring will live on through her children, grandchildren and her many friends.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church, 47 W. Main Street Mount Joy, PA, on Saturday, January 5th, 2019 at 10:30 AM. There will be no viewing. Friends will be received following the service. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Barbara's memory to the Endowment Fund at Trinity Lutheran Church, Mount Joy.

“ Barbara and I worked together many years at Luther Acres we had many laughs together shared many discussions about religion children and families. She was a very wise and caring person I received a lot of good advice from her. She had a difficult struggle made easier by her loving husband and family. So sorry she has left us the world won't be the same please accept my condolences. Donna Dixon Pensacola Florida

“ Our deepest sympathies for the loss of a beloved wife, Mother, Grandmother and friend. We knew you both briefly years ago while you, Pastor Davide, hosted a retreat for a group of parishioners of Salem Lutheran Church, West Ephrata, Pa with Pastor Jeffrey Pretz. We have never forgotten that retreat and the brief contacts with you and Barbara. May God grant you the strength and comfort you need during this difficult time.

“ The Rose Beyond the Wall Near a shady wall a rose once grew, Budded and blossomed in God's free light, Watered and fed by the morning dew, Shedding it's sweetness day and night. As it grew and blossomed fair and tall, Slowly rising to loftier height, It came to a crevice in the wall Through which there shone a beam of light. Onward it crept with added strength With never a thought of fear or pride, It followed the light through the crevice's length And unfolded itself on the other side. The light, the dew, the broadening view Were found the same as they were before, And it lost itself in beauties new, Breathing it's fragrance more and more. Shall claim of death cause us to grieve And make our courage faint and fall? Nay!
Let us faith and hope receive-- The rose still grows beyond the wall, Scattering fragrance far and wide Just as it did in days of yore, Just as it did on the other side, Just as it will forevermore. ~ A. L. Frink
