“ My mother, Barrie Eichler Cornwell, babysat Bernell and his siblings when they were little. She said that his mother worked very hard keeping house and wrangling the kids together. Later in years, my little girl (now 39) and I ran into Bernell at a musical program at Seiler elementary school. He picked my daughter up, held her and told her that he was Santa Clause. It was a tender moment from such a big burly guy. I thought it quite special.

“ The Young family lived next door to my family on Donegal Street and across the street from Jakey Aument (and ironically next door to the Sheetz family). They were part of my childhood and I cad n still remember playing in their yard. I remember I had a crush on Diane ...I also remember how strong Bernell was ...I did not want to get on his bad side. I also remember his younger brother Gordon (who I remember for some reason everyone referred to as "Dinny". I also remember Glenn who at the time was just like five or six years old. My heart is sad at the loss of my neighbor from back in the day and my sincere condolences go out to Bernell's family and loved ones.
