“ Right now, when your loss is so fresh, it may be difficult for you to imagine that this pain will ever go away. But in time the blessing of God's unfailing love will soften the hurt you're feeling and bring your heart the peace, comfort and hope that it needs to heal. How? Revelation 21:4 tells us that soon everything that causes us pain, including death, will be gone forever. We also have the hope of our loved ones being resurrected here on a paradise earth, as Acts 24:15, Luke 23:43 tells us. I do hope you find comfort in this. Though I did not know your Carl, he sound like a beautiful person. I am touched by your loss. Please accept my sincere condolences. (JW.org).

“ Carl, you will be missed! Your wit, your sense of humor, even your stubbornness, all characteristics that make you- you! More importantly, I respect and admire your strength and am in awe how you fought your battle with cancer. I never heard you complain or feel sorry for yourself, you remained stalwart and steadfast in your battle, sometimes even joking about your predicament. You even finally managed to convince me to go to camping this year at Knoebels and I so wanted to be able to share it with you. God had a different plan. I love you my dear brother, and keep that flashlight handy for the rest of us! Rest in peace. ❤️❤️❤️
