“ Our heartfelt sympathies are being sent to Carol's family. Carol was a very special friend who was also our "across the street" neighbor during her years of living on Wood Street. We shared laughter, hugs, tears and many extended conversations. She often talked lovingly about her children and spouses. Carol was always ready to help or listen. I will miss Carol, but am so glad she is in the presence of Jesus and enjoying complete healing. Allen and I are thankful that our life paths intersected with Carol.
