“ My sympathies to the family of Chuck. I am not sure of the year that he started to volunteer at the hospital in Brevard, but he along with Jerry Vincent would pop their heads into my office on the days they worked, always with smiles and jokes. I have several "odes" that Chuck wrote me over the years. The first was in 1998, the last in 2011, that one about a boating mishap that broke my ankle. He was clever and witty. Then there was the Arby lunches after he "retired" from volunteering. I treasure my memories of Chuck. I know he will be missed by all.
