“ So sorry to hear about my Uncle Chris’s passing. He was the last of my aunts and uncles. They are all very much missed but I still have many fond memories while growing up. I will miss his laughter and sense of humor.

“ Our deepest condolences to your family. Chris was a very godly man who impacted the lives of others. He cared deeply for all the children in our church. He took the time to ask how they were doing. He will be missed greatly. He left behind a godly legacy for others to follow.
