“ Mr. and Mrs. Frey so sorry to hear about Cindy's passing--I actually just found out a few minutes ago. I played trumpet with Cindy in the Penn Manor HS Band (I was in the class of '84) and went to Lancaster YFC Club with her too. We always had great times at both places. Cindy was always such a great friend and was always happy and was always ready with a laugh. I saw her a time or two since high school and knew she had a photography business. I always liked photography, so I was extra interested that Cindy had a photography career. I was on Cindy's photography website just now and her photography is so excellent! What a kind soul we have all lost. I'll look forward to seeing her in the Kingdom some day when we're reunited there! Blessing, thoughts and prayers to you and the rest of the family.

“ One thing about Bible Quizzing was that you got to meet and know some really great people. Cindy was one of them. Loved her spirit and her interaction with the quizzers. She will be missed but looking forward to seeing her in heaven. Leona Asper, a coach at Harrisburg BIC when Cindy was a coach at Manor.

“ Terry, Ben, and Luke, We are so saddened to hear of your wife and mother's passing. We enjoyed living across the street raising those two wild boys. We'll never forget when one of you tied the push mower to the four wheeler and we watched her shake her head in disbelief. She always seemed to take it in stride. We pray that you'll remember those fun times with your always smiling Cindy/Mom. She was always so kind. Chris & Sarah Vogel 111 Hempfield St.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Shirk, I am so sad to hear of this news. You may remember me from Penn Manor HS. I lost touch with Cindy since high school, but I counted her as one of my best friends back then. We played saxophone in marching band together for 3 years. We never stopped laughing and i can hardly remember anything else from high school except the two of us laughing at everything all the time. I was always sorry we lost touch. I am sure she left a wonderful legacy in her lovely family. Sincerely, Candy Good-Graupera Lancaster
