My granddaughter is a the older sister of Gabby and Nathaniel. She is my sons daughter. "Daddy Dan" as she lovingly called him treated her like one of his own children. A kind young man with a generous, big heart. Riley has fond memories of him, his family treated her the same as he did. Please accept my condolences at this time. I have no words, i wish i did at this time to lessen your grief.
With sincere sympathy,
Brenda martin-wysock

“ I grew up a few houses down from Dan, Ben, and their father, Steve. Although I haven't seen Dan since high school, our neighborhood which was full of kids shared many memories together such as street hockey in front of Dan's house, video games in his living room, football in the backyard, and flashlight tag throughout the neighborhood. Dan was always active and apart of the group. He was always good for pushing the boundary and getting a laugh. I just saw that Dan's father died a few years ago. Steve was a great guy. Always welcoming and friendly of all the kids in the neighborhood. Ben, if you see this, you're in my thoughts and I hope you have a good path forward!
