To my brother David I will miss you. I know we didn't really get to know each other that well but when I didn't get to finally get to know you, I know you were an amazing brother and I know we didn't have the same father, but we did have the same mother and I will miss you and I'm so sorry that this happened to you, you were in my prayers, and you always will be, I will not forget about you, you'll be in heaven with mom, my sister, Theresa, and other love ones, they have passed, you will be missed very much, I wish I could've got to know you better and I know someday I will see you again when I get enter into paradise, rest in peace, my loving brother, love always your sister
