“ What a dear little boy. His happy smile struck me in such a warm way. The t-shirt fits his expression. May Our Lord touch both of you and his brothers with Comfort that only The Holy Spirit can give. He is in The Lords Army now. God Bless Him and all of you as a family.

“ May you find comfort and peace in small things be it a gentle breeze, a ladybug, or a special place, smell, or item that you feel reminds you that Dawson is sending Lil reminders of his presence and love from heaven/the other side. He will fly high with beautiful wings among many MTM warriors including 2 of my own boys. Nothing prepared us for these days but then again there was no handbook on how to be parents to such medically fragile children. Dawson's life looked happy and content he was surrounded by loving parents and siblings. My comforting thoughts are with you and I didn't mean to ramble .. my emotions are high at these times ..MY HEART TRULY BREAKS FOR YOUR FAMILY 💔😭

“ God bless you young man. So sweet and beautiful. You brought a community together following the story of your way too short but highly memorable life. An angel here on earth and now in heaven with our Lord and saviour. God bless the whole Waite family. Thank you for sharing your angel with us. May God give you comfort in the knowledge of Dawson's eternal life. Fly high little man.

“ Our hearts go out to you. Jen, you have been such an inspiration to me as I face our children's medical problems. I always love to look at Dawson's smiling face and am deeply saddened by his loss, even now looking at his picture gives me strength and encouragement and reminds me that even the impossible can be possible. You have a strength like no other and I deeply admire that and only hope someday I can be that strong Thank you for sharing your story with us and sharing Dawson with us, we are deeply blessed . You have helped make us better advocates for our children. Sweet baby, my heart is deeply saddened every day you weighed heavvily on my mind and now your family does. We wil always remember your story and remember you . We are sendng much love and prayers from State College, Pa
