

Donald "Don" Leon Miller

August 17, 1931 - October 1, 2020

Donald Leon "Don" Miller, 89, of Columbia, passed away unexpectedly with his wife by his side on Thursday, October 1, 2020. Born in Lancaster, he was the son of the late John N. and Lillian (Weidman) Miller. Don was the husband of Carol (Smith) Miller with whom he celebrated 64 years of marriage this past May 6th.

Don was a graduate of J.P. McCaskey High School Class of 1949. He proudly served in the United States Army during the Korean War. Don retired from the US Postal Service and previously worked at Olmstead Air Force Base. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Mount Joy which was very important to him. Don enjoyed "playing in the dirt" in his huge garden, crossword puzzles, and managing a small Christmas tree farm.

Surviving in addition to his wife Carol, are four children, David M. Miller, husband of Lisa of Temple, PA, Susan L. Craine, companion of Patrick Gerlach of Mount Joy, Laurie A. Miller, wife of Timothy of Palmyra, and Beth A. Parker, wife of Thomas of Mountville; seven grandchildren; and two great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a brother, William J. Miller.

“ I remember fondly Mr. Miller's deliberate mispronouncing of words and trip to Disney. He made me laugh! My deepest condolences to Laurie, Mrs. Miller and family.

“ Our mother Dorcas was a friend of Don's. We loved his Christmas trees and produce. Every time I drove past the house and he was outside, he always had a smile and wave for us. Know you are in our thoughts and prayers. The Leonard family
