“ To Donna's Family, I knew and enjoyed working with Donna thru the Friends of Milanof-Schock Library for many years. Donna was a very quiet and easy going person. I never saw her loose her temper, get frustrated or anything else. She just took care of the situation and continued on her way. She was a gem of a person, a good friend and a friend to everyone. Donna you will be missed by all that had the pleasure of knowing you. Rest In Peace.

“ Dear Ray (Harrisburg-Stake-HighCouncil colleague for several years) and the entire Little Family:Pat and I were heartsick to learn of Donna's passing. Few people we've know are as kind, gentle, and gracious, as Donna. Add to that her quiet, effective leadership and devotion to family, church, and community, and you've got a living saint. John 11:25-26 buoys us up at times like these, a hope and a promise we all share in, especially at this Eastertide. Please accept our sincere condolences,-Mark & Pat Mecham (Lebanon Ward)

“ As a volunteer, I first met Donna when she was the Volunteer Coordinator at the Milanof-Schock Library. When I stopped volunteering, I met her several times as a customer in the grocery store I now work at. She was pleasant to work with at the Library. Later, I looked forward to speaking with her when I saw her in the grocery store. She will be missed.One sweet memory I would like to share was once at the Library Volunteer Appreciation Dinner, Donna and a man acted out a short skit about how 2 people met in a library. What started as a shared interest in books soon turned into romance and eventually into becoming engaged. When I asked who was the man that proposed in the skit, I was told he was Donna's husband.
