“ My deepest sympathy I am sending to you Joe and your family in the passing of Dottie. I am so glad to have gone camping at family our Roxbury camping trips with Dottie. We had fun, whether it was at lady church events with our fancy hats, love feasts, camping or worshiping together at church. I sat with Dottie at church one Sunday and I am glad I got to do that. Jesus called Dottie home to smile in heaven now. No more pain and suffering 🦋-Susan Hopple

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your wife, mother, and grandma Dottie's homegoing. I remember first meeting her back in 1980, stopping by her home for a visit one winter evening with my then boyfriend. I felt very welcomed and enjoyed talking with she and Joe. She was very hospitable, sharing some dessert and laughs. Yes, the finest thing about her was her laugh. A woman of faith, she knew the love and forgiveness of Jesus and lived it. She was very kind to me over the subsequent years when we would meet up during family get togethers. Family is everything and Dottie and Joe knew that. Much Love to all of you. Fawn Cornwell.
