She was the loving wife of LaVerne S. Hauck, who passed away in 2007. Edna will be missed by her son LaVerne S. Jr., husband of Bonnie L. (Bush) Hauck, of Elizabethtown.

Edna was a graduate of Manheim Township High School Class of 1938. Edna's faith was a fundamental part of her life and she served her lord in many different ways every day. She was an active member of the Pearl Street United Methodist Church, where she taught Sunday school for both children and adults. She was an avid golfer and loved to play at both Four Seasons Golf Club in Landisville and Overlook Golf Course in Lancaster. Edna was the scorekeeper for the Four Seasons Ladies League and she called in the scores from each day's play to the Lancaster Newspaper for publication. When Edna was unable to get on the golf course to stay active, she enjoyed classes at the Hempfield Recreation Center. Edna also enjoyed working on crafts, knitting, crocheting, and needlepoint.

Born in Lancaster, she was the daughter of the late William F. and Ida Mae (Black) Sprenkle. She was predeceased by two brothers, Howard and Bill Sprenkle, and two sisters, Hazel Graeff and Isabelle Childs.

“ My dear, great aunt Edna... baby sister, to my dearly missed Grammy. How dearly you will be missed. I will never forget Thanksgivings at your home when I was growing up with my grandparents, parents, brothers, Kearney and Bonnie and other family members who were able to attend on different years. You always made me my own stuffing that did not have onions in it. I do eat onions now, 50 years later. You always had a smile on your face and were always in such an upbeat mood to see us kids and give us warm hugs and kisses- no matter how long it had been since we last saw you. You and my Grammy would go shopping together and bought beautiful things for me to display in my home when I got older. I still have all the gifts, and I think of you both whenever I look at them. You were such a loving and kind spirit. A definite ray of sunshine in our family. How blessed you were to live such a long life in good health. This is something as a nurse that I do not see today in my patients. I love you Aunt Edna. My daughter, Sister Amanda Marie de Jesus of The Little Sisters of the Poor, will place your name on the list to be remembered at a Mass with the Little Sisters. Praying that Kearney and Bonnie will find peace in this time of loss of their loving mother. With love, Amy, Bill, Sister Amanda, and Emily. XOXO

“ Edna was our original Go Girl award winner because her passion for golf, her kindness to all and her amazing spirit were always inspiring to all of us Four Seasons golf girls. I loved going running or biking and stopping by her house to see her. We often chatted for an hour or two, and I will always treasure that she called me her “angel”. I always replied that she was “my angel.” We laughed and shared family and faith stories together. Edna will always be in my heart ❤️ and I will think of her often. Nancy Bradley

“ Edna was one amazing lady. Always a smile on her face. I would love to be at the service, however I have tickets to see Sound of Music with some widow friends at the same time as the services. Prayers with her family, She is now at peace. I would often give her a orchid on her birthday, because she only had to add 1 ice cube a week to keep it alive. Often when I signed in - she would tell me it is still blooming. I also made the DVD for her and for you - her family of her playing golf. She was a friend, and I will miss that I can not attend her services. Mable Hershey
