

Edward M. "Ed" Armentrout

October 19, 1987 - December 6, 2024

Edward M. "Ed" Armentrout, 37, passed away on Tuesday, December 3, 2024. He is at peace now. Born in Lancaster, he was the son of Michael E. Armentrout of Lancaster and Tracy (Ober) Tunstall, wife of George of Lititz. Also surviving is a sister, Samantha Nelson, wife of Ian of Manheim; a paternal grandmother, Bettie Jo Armentrout; and many aunts, uncles, cousins and a niece.

Ed was a graduate of Manheim Central High School class of 2006. An avid Philadelphia Phillies and Flyers fan.

A visitation will be held at the Manheim VFW, 149 S Charlotte St, Manheim, PA 17545 on Saturday, December 21, 2024 from 12 PM to 3 PM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Lancaster Behavioral Health Center, 333 Harrisburg Ave, Lancaster, PA 17603.

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 21. 12:00 PM - 3:00 AM.

Manheim Vfw

Tribute Wall

KE

“ Ed I just thought of you and wish you knew how much you meant to others. Maybe you did know but life is just heavy at times. I'm glad you are in peace but you are still missed!

Kerry - December 08, 2025 at 09:02 PM

BA

“ I always remember that great smile when I would see you, and you always had a hug for me. Children should not leave this earth before grandparents or parents. I will miss you. love granny

Betty Armentrout - December 17, 2024 at 06:30 AM

PO

“ Pearl Ober lit a candle in memory of Edward M. "Ed" Armentrout

Pearl Ober - December 16, 2024 at 02:46 PM

CH

“ Carol Houser lit a candle in memory of Edward M. "Ed" Armentrout

Carol Houser - December 15, 2024 at 11:02 PM

KM

“ Kristin Martin lit a candle in memory of Edward M. "Ed" Armentrout

Kristin Martin - December 15, 2024 at 08:35 PM

SF

“ I still cannot wrap my head around the fact that you are gone. That I'll never get to see you or hear your voice or laugh with you again in this life. You were so incredibly special and I wish you saw yourself the way I saw you and everyone else around you saw you. You were everything; smart, talented, witty, kind, hilarious, gentle and patient. I loved how awkward we were with each other at the beginning. I would go out of my way just in the hopes of running into you so I could talk to you (I don't think I ever told you that). I loved how each year after we had so much fun, creating new jokes that only we thought were funny and living life. Even boring days were fun because of you. I loved that you didn't take things too seriously. I definitely needed that in my life. You've made me a better person and brought balance into my life. I will never ever forget you. You will always be a piece of my heart. I hope you're at peace now and I hope you know how much you were loved. Because you were loved tremendously.

Stacie Fleming - December 12, 2024 at 01:37 PM

SF

“ I still cannot wrap my head around the fact that you are gone. That I'll never get to see you or hear your voice or laugh with you again in this life. You were so incredibly special and I wish you saw yourself the way I saw you and everyone else around you saw you. You were everything; smart, talented, witty, kind, hilarious, gentle and patient. I loved how awkward we were with each other at the beginning. I would go out of my way just in the hopes of running into you so I could talk to you (I don't think I ever told you that). I loved how each year after we had so much fun, creating new jokes that only we thought were funny and living life. Even boring days were fun because of you. I loved that you didn't take things too seriously. I definitely needed that in my life. You've made me a better person and brought balance into my life. I will never ever forget you. You will always be a piece of my heart. I hope you're at peace now and I hope you know how much you were loved. Because you were loved tremendously.

Stacie Fleming - December 12, 2024 at 01:37 PM

JL

“ I've been wrestling with myself for a week now, trying to find not just the right words, but any words to say. How do you say goodbye to such a monumental part of your life? As the news of your passing spreads, the pain and sorrow I feel is overshadowed by the memories of smiles and laughter you brought to everyone you met. Beyond friends, we've had the pleasure of sharing jobs, bands, gaming groups, and countless other experiences together. So many have reached out sharing memories of how much you made them laugh and feel welcomed by your warm personality. Your wit, humor, and passion for those you cared about will forever be unmatched. I owe so much of my own personality to you, and am so, so grateful for the time we had together. I could fill one of those giant fantasy/adventuring books you loved to read with all the memories and inside jokes you and I have shared over the years. You were, and will continue to be such a huge part of the person I am.

Ed, I love you brother. I'll carry your memory with me always.

Josh Lasdin - December 12, 2024 at 12:21 AM

KD

“ I was just thinking of Ed recently, so I was taken aback at seeing this sad news. I had the privilege of knowing him as a co-worker, not at just one employer, but two! Although the Ed I knew as being kinda on the quiet side, we often shared meals & conversations together. He was funny, caring, intelligent, hiding a wild side I'm certain, and a fantastic team player at work. I'm not a fan of people much, but I can absolutely say I loved that kid to pieces. He was a human I actually enjoyed having in my orbit. I accidentally found his Obituary while looking for my Cousins who passed yesterday.....crying in my coffee this morning. Ed.....although I haven't seen you in years.....my heart breaks for your family....I know their pain too well.....I will keep them close to my thoughts and prayers and I pray that you are at peace, safely in Jesus' arms. I'll look forward to chillin' with you on the other side "kiddo".

Kelly DiGiulio - December 11, 2024 at 08:56 AM

KS

“ Ed you will be missed! I always thought of you fondly! You were a genuine person with a kind heart. I know this world can be a heavy place, I hope you've found peace. You had a way of making people feel accepted and not judged. You allowed people to be themselves. I appreciated you and your sense of humor! You were so witty and smart! You had some pretty cool talents as well like singing and speaking other languages! Your impressions were unmatched! You were a lot of fun to be around, Ed. Thanks for sharing your gifts while you were here!

Kerry Swartchick - December 09, 2024 at 07:44 PM

AS

“ Oh the gift of God to give us, to see ourselves as others see us.
Sleep in peace my friend.

Aileen Swartchick - December 09, 2024 at 01:47 PM

Jasmine
Harrison

“ Eddie obtained his license right before my 16th Birthday - he was so kind to offer rides or ask to hang out & take me places... I remember asking him what it's like to FINALLY have the freedom to drive? He was so humble & made it seem like it's no big deal and that I wasn't really missing out on much. "After a while it becomes like anything else you do regularly, ya know?"

I remember visiting his grandmother after he joined the Airforce. She lit up... sharing stories & her pride in her grandson 🙏

He was always so kind, calm, understanding & overall a great friend. My whole family is sending peace & love to the Armentrout & Ober families 📺

Jasmine Harrison - December 08, 2024 at 11:57 AM

AM

“ Eddie you will always be in my heart!

Amber Matroni - December 07, 2024 at 05:09 PM

Jim Ober

“ Jim Ober lit a candle in memory of Edward M. "Ed" Armentrout

Jim Ober - December 06, 2024 at 10:30 PM

DW

Michael and I have been friends since childhood. I can't believe his son is gone. I remember seeing Ed and Sammy Jo when they were little and I visited Ed and Tracy. As they got older Mike and I were at a bar and Ed joined us. I had no idea he was having trouble. May he RIP. Prayers to Tracy, Sammy Jo, and the Armentrout family.

David Welsh - December 15, 2024 at 08:31 PM

AT

All I can say is.....I Miss You Eddie. I Love You 🥹

Aunt Terry - January 10, 2025 at 06:44 AM