“ It is probably very likely that Betty was one of the last survivors of the Mount Joy class of 1940. I know my mother kept in contact with her as long as she could either by mailing Christmas cards or telephone. My mother was Dorothy (Detwiler) Sumpman and was in her high school class. I called her when my mother passed away in February 2019. Betty was very nice to talk to and she was glad that I contacted her. I am sure she will be missed by the family especially her niece Penny.
