“ Our sincere condolences to everyone, Aunt Estelle was a sweet woman and the world could have used a few more like her. I will always carry the memories of her in my heart. As a girl, I stayed at the Rinehart house many times and I can't recall ever feeling that I was imposing or putting anybody out when I did so. I'll always remember her as a reader, as someone who was so very close to her family, and as the baker of the best sand tarts in the family. Her struggles are over now. R.I.P., Aunt Estelle.
