“ We were so sorry to hear of Fred's passing. Carol and Fred were the very first neighbors we met when we moved into the neighborhood. They were always so much fun. The happiest Fred was since Carol's passing was when he went on a surprise family trip to Disney World. He just beamed as he told us all about it; it meant so much to him. We will miss him greatly. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. Kathy and Rick Matesevac

“ We, Chris and Gay, are so sorry to hear of Fred's passing. We have been neighbors the past 7 years and have many wonderful memories of both Fred and Carol. Fred was a fun-loving, cheerful and made us laugh whenever we spent time together. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the Griffiths family at this difficult. Blessings to each of you, Sincerely, Chris and Gay Byler

“ We know that Fred was waiting for his homegoing to heaven where there would be no more pain and sorrow. He is now in the presence of Jesus his Savior and gathered with all of the loved ones who've gone before. We know that Carol was anxiously awaiting his arrival. We mourn and weep, but are reminded of God's promises and the hope we have in Him. "Grieve Not as Those Who Have No Hope" (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18) Love to the Griffiths family. Rebecca Morgan and Lawrence Cipriani (Carol's first cousin).
