“ My Dear Pop... I can't believe you are actually gone from this Earth. I know you are reunited with your beloved nuclear family, relatives and many dear friends from throughout your long life. I will forever miss your smile, your quick wit, you're generous heart and hearing you call me "Kimberly" in your New York accent that remained a part of you throughout your 92 years! I hope you are in your glory amongst God and all of those who have gone before you who you have loved and who have loved you.

“ I have so many memories of my uncle and godfather. My Dad always made a point to visit his little brother. I can still see him standing out front of his house, waving goodbye until we were no longer in sight. Even though we didn't see him on a regular basis, the times we did spend together were always fun. He will be missed. ❤️
