“ I just saw this and saddened my heart, we were shipmates on the USS Purdy DD 734 we reconnected and remained in touch with each other over the last 25 years I have been searching for him for a few years did not know what happened and why we lost contact. This man served his country with honor, pride and excellence in service, he was so proud to be a member of a elite group "The Purdy Pirates" he would repeat to me every chat we had "we are the purdy pirates, the raiders of the night, we are the purdy pirates that never run from a fight. Fair Winds and Following Seas my friend I miss you.
