Licensed in 1951 as a funeral director, he continued to serve the profession until his death as supervisor of Sheetz Funeral Home, Inc., Mount Joy. He owned and operated the Sheetz Real Estate firm and worked with the Ray N. Wiley Insurance Company of Mount Joy for thirty years.

A lifelong resident of Mount Joy, Jerry was born on April 21, 1925 in his family home. He was the son of the late Roy Bard Sheetz and Rebecca Siegrist Sheetz. A lifelong member of Trinity Lutheran Church, Jerry was a firm believer in civic duties as well. He was an active member and former president of the Mount Joy Lions Club, Mount Joy Helping Services, the Lancaster County Funeral Directors Association, and was a member of Casiphia Lodge, #551 Free and Accepted Masons, Mount Joy.

An ardent upland game hunter, he celebrated life through his love of the outdoors. He enjoyed nature and often described a frosty morning sunrise in the fields as "God's greatest gift." During his life long passion of hunting he was always accompanied by "bird dogs" Queenie, Babe, Sporty, and Carnella. He looked forward to spending at the beach where he loved to fish, a sport he shared with his children. Jerry cherished going to the family cabin in Mifflin Co. where he liked hunting, hiking and being with his family. A dedicated naturalist, he planted trees for which he will be remembered as a tree of life for his family.

Jerry married Mary Reich on September 10, 1949. They were married for fifty-seven years and raised five children. Together, they provided a model of friendship and caring to everyone they encountered.
