“ Deepest Sympathy to my cousins and families. She will be missed by all that have known her. I have fond memories of her that go a long way back. One of my first memories were of her and Uncle Russ taking me on a picnic with them before they were married to a park where we had lunch on a blanket on the ground. She would let me look in in the little dresser boxes on her dresser at Grandma Ranck's. I loved looking at the little treasures. I remember her wedding and many fond memories of visiting at the lovely home in Mt. Joy. I left Pa. at a young age but memories will always be special. I will always her laughter. She was special. Deepest Sympathies, Carol (Rohrer) Ropp
