“ I only knew Guy for a few years, but he was a wonderful quiet gentleman. He loved his music, his family, and his neighbor and friend, Raymond Nicoulin.

Whenever Guy needed help with something, Ray was always ready and willing to help. And whenever Ray was away from his house overnight, Guy would feed Ray's cats. As Ray became unable to mow, I helped out by mowing the yard and taking Guy to the VA hospital whenever he needed. Whenever I prepared extra food I would take some to Guy and Ray, and our last meal together was the one I prepared for New Year's Day 2025. Guy seemed especially happy as this was the first meal we had all shared in his home.

Guy is very much missed by myself and Ray. It was an honor to be his friend and for myself and Ray to attend his service, and be with his son David and wife Kristen. Claudette Terry, Orlando, Fl.
