“ God bless the Newcomer Family. My Father died on Dec 28, 2016 - so I think I know a bit of how you feel. My dad's experience was a very positive one, no doubts, no confusion, no fears, just a very deep desire to meet Jesus face to face. A very meaningful experience for Florence and I and I hope a testimony that my children will take to heart and learn from. I hope you are all well and I can't believe that it has been 40 years since I knew you. My days at Camp Yolijwa and CGYA were some of my happiest. Sandy could you reply, I would love to hear updates on our old friends etc. I am so happy to hear that you are serving Jesus. loving and serving Him is all that matters - I missed so many opportunities by letting me get in the way -HE must increase - I must increase. In CHRIST alone ---

“ Sandy and Don, My sympathy on the loss of your father. Whatever their age or ours, it is not easy to lose a parent. Knowing you'll be with him again one day is consolation but there is still grief. Prayers. Joyce Mershon
