

Harold G. Godsey

February 17, 1943 - August 12, 2024

Harold G. Godsey, 81, of Landisville, passed away on Monday, August 12, 2024 at Oak Leaf Manor North. Born in Pine Knot, KY, he was the son of the late Roy Parker and Hettie Lee (Flynn) Godsey. Harold was the husband of Brenda (Basham) Godsey who passed away on May 29, 2015.

Harold retired from TYCO as a manager. He enjoyed woodworking and photography.

Harold is survived by two children, Lisa R. Wilbert, wife of Rodney of Mount Joy and Larry G. Godsey, husband of Jennifer of Marietta; five grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Virgil Ray of Lompoc, CA and Lenville

Wayne of Cincinnati, OH.

Services will be private. Harold and Brenda will both return to Kentucky for interment.

Tribute Wall

CM

“ I remember taking care of him when I worked for oak leaf...he would make everyone smile, he always had a joke ready!!! I'm sure he is now with his puppy smiling down on his family....he was a super sweet man!!! Rest peacefully in heaven.... Carrie Marty carrie marty - August 18, 2024 at 10:10 PM

KH

“ My heart was saddened by the news of “Glenn’s” passing. My visits to him at Oak Leaf Manor were quite enjoyable for me. We would recall memories of our many years knowing each others families! Oh how time flies and our lives go through many changes within our circle of friends and even our families! I miss my friend Brenda, and now my dear friend Glenn. Thoughts n prayers are especially with Glenn’s family! May you rest in peace Glenn!

Kathy Herr - August 17, 2024 at 03:43 PM