“ Many thoughts and prayers to the family in the next days, weeks and months to come . I was lucky to have met Hat at CPRS Elizabethtown many years ago! We became friends and he always enlightened my day with his wit and humor. I soon found out he was a gentle giant always concerned about others. The Eagles and Flyers were in good hands with Hat never a dull moment in their defense. CPRS will never be the same he would light the place up which made my morning so much better. Until we meet again many thanks to a true friend may God speed!

“ Hat is a person you don't soon forget. We enjoyed spending many good times with you all at Sunday school and church events at Mount Calvary. Our hearts go out to your family in the coming days and weeks without him. He is in God's presence and making everyone laugh. What an encouragement he was in his Christian faith.

“ Mrs. Lloyd, Andy, Liz and all the family-we are so deeply sorry for the loss of your dear husband, father, and grandfather, Mr. Lloyd. I am so very thankful to have met Mr. Lloyd in Dallas, NC at Jack's birthday party last year. He was warm, friendly and loving. He invited me and my family up to visit anytime and he would show us around Pennsylvania and the home he loved. That is my memory of Mr. Lloyd. His love lives on through his family. Mrs. Carol, Andy, Liz- we are praying for you constantly each day as we think of you. Our love to you all- Jason, Laura, Lucy, Tess and Ruby Ballard, First Baptist Stanley, NC.

“ Pie and the Eagles. That's what I'll remember the most of my friend, Hat. When he came to Pinebrook he'd recuse this Host Pastor and take him to get some pie. Then, I was delighted to join him for several Eagles games at the Vet. On at least one occasion we took our mutual friend, Bruce Heffner, with us. Little Bruce sat between Hat and me. When we stood up to cheer, Bruce had to as well as Hat and I extended over the seats. I'll miss my friend, but will see him in Glory. Hoping he'll have some heavenly pie waiting for me.

“ My heart is breaking for all of you. I thank God for the years that I had to enjoy "Hat" and his big personality, his infectious laugh and his genuine love for everyone. I will be praying without ceasing for each of you. "Hat" heard those beautiful that we all as God's children live to hear..."Well done good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your reward." There was never a doubt of Hat's love for his Father. A man of great faith. I will miss you, Hat.Vickie Whitener
