“ Judy and Jeff your dad was a loved uncle and he surely loved my mother and was a real survivor! All pretty special attributes in my view. His beating nasal cancer long ago was something special, and inspiring. In fact the specialist doctor that treated him really only took his case because 'the progression of the cancer was so great that he just couldn't pass up the challenge'. Well you know what, your dad met that challenge and won.

Like Linda I have some very fond memories of your dad over the years during Christmas and summer visits to PA. One in particular stands out, when as I recall maybe 1966 or so your dad got a convertible and took us on a ride with the top down around town. Very fun and memorable.

Your father will be missed by all who knew him.

Love, cousin David.

Judy and Jeff, I just wanted to share a few memories of your father and your family. As we lived in Michigan, I did not have the pleasure of a multitude of family picnics with you all, but the ones I was part of were glorious! And your mother and father were rather stellar in my eyes. Lots of laughter and fun. This photo was taken in 1954 in Washington, D.C. Needless to say, I don't recall "hanging with the guys" (Uncle Harry and PapPap!), as I was one year old. However, I wanted to send it because it shows how willing they were to meet you where you were, so to speak, and extend a friendly attitude.

It seemed that Uncle Harry was always involved in something interesting - whether it be square dancing, pursuing a healthy diet and lifestyle, or travelling (which all my uncles enjoyed, now that I think of it!). Once he arranged for my family to see a Sight and Sound presentation, where he worked at that time, and we enjoyed getting together afterward.

During this recent "pandemic", when I was cooped up for many months all by myself, I ventured to call Uncle Harry to chat, and we had some good laughs over the phone. Though I only called a handful of times during that year and a half, I was glad to hear news of Mount Joy, politics, and what he and Aunt Hilda were doing, and it surely did take off some of the anxiety I experienced. And you know, he kindly never made me feel that I was imposing. That is what I will remember the most about your father.

*Lots of Love,
Cousin Linda*
