“ I didn't really know you. It's almost been a year that you have been gone. I feel like I'm not the one to be typing something here, but here I am. I only talked to you a few times. You seemed nice, friendly enough. You didn't deserve to go. I'm so so sorry for all of your family and friends. Even though it's almost been a year and I barely knew you, I find myself thinking of you and what happened fairly often. Wherever you are, I hope it's okay. I hope you're okay.

“ Your beautiful and kind daughter waited on my husband and I many times at McDonalds. We are so saddened to read of her untimely death. We have lost a son in the prime of his life too. May God grant you healing and peace over time. She truly made this world a better place. Nancy and Phil Rainey

“ I send my sincere condolences to your family during this difficult time. (Revelation 21:3,4) This scripture comforted me when I lost a loved one and I hope it can do the same for your family. God promises that all these difficult things we have to go through today will soon be done away with! May God give you comfort and the strength to endure through this difficult time (Psalm 34:18)

I do know how beautiful and full of life and potential 17-year-old girls are. I can't imagine your pain. Dear Lord, please make yourself real to this family.
