“ Just a chance meeting was the beginning of a wonderful friendship. Two of the girls (as we liked to call ourselves) are gone now; and I miss them both. Irene was immediately, a joy to know. Quickly, I found that she was equally easy to love and respect. We'll miss her, as we regret that our time of friendship was so short. But we know she is now happy and content, at home with her George, and also her Lord and Savior. And that heaven will be her forever home. We extend our sincere sympathy to her family.
