“ I knew Jim as the boyfriend of Marian his wife, since we were friends in high school. Somehow, we connected early on as brother and sister in Christ. Perhaps because of our involvement with Youth for Christ. I got to visit Marian twice in the hospital before she passed, I completely missed the news of Jim’s passing. I wish I had heard so I would have been to his memorial service. After leaving Lancaster County for college in 1964, we weren’t in close contact since I served in missions based out of Michigan, but I did reconnect with them at our High School class reunions every five years.

Then when I retired back to Lancaster County 6 years ago, my wife and I took a year off to visit a wide range of churches before settling on the one where are now. The day we visited CBC, Marian and Jim were the welcomers at the front door. We were introduced to a couple of their sons at that time. May God use their family to continue to bless many more people with the Blessings of the Gospel which believed and lived out in their lives.
