“ I am saddened to hear of Jim's passing. Jim was a friend and fellow musician who loved music. I remember fondly Jim's volunteer service at the Cornerstone Cafe coffee house in E-town years ago where his heart for Jesus and youth was displayed. Jim was a very generous person who helped me on numerous occasions with tech and computer problems. He was always willing to help and be there when you needed him. Jim was a patient and kind man who wanted to help others. He will be missed. My heart felt condolences to his wife Yvette and family.

“I was lucky enough to get to know Jim before Facebook -- and the Internets or anything else like them -- was invented. We graduated together from Abington HS, and friendship there began around the fact that we both played the drums. Throughout all of the time I knew him, Jim's good heart always came shining through, and there are not that many people about whom that can be said. He really will be missed.

“ I can't even count how many times he made me laugh! I only knew him on Facebook but would definitely call him friend. So many good conversations, the memes were priceless. The world is a better place for him being in it and now he's with our heavenly Father. A good man. He will be missed by so many.

“ I only knew Jim through Facebook, but I very much enjoyed all of his posts and comments, especially his humorous posts. He commented often on my own posts, and we engaged in conversation through Facebook. My sincerest condolences to Jim's family, rest in peace.

“ The first time we met Jim was the “meet the parents” dinner arranged by Tyler and Lucy. We bonded immediately over classic rock conversations. We laughed so much an embarrassed Tyler and Lucy slipped out of the Resturant. We will miss him
