“ Joanne, how sorry we are for your loss. We have been told that the most important part of what is on our tombstone is not the dates but the dash. Jim certainly lived a dash filled life. Memories of good discussions in Sunday School and some fun moments of levity. He will be missed. You now have time to know that his struggles are over. Please take care of you. You deserve a recovery from being the caregiver and adjust to this major change in your life. Sending hugs and love. Dianne and Gary Berlin
