“ Remembering Jason...As a child he was quiet. One of the South Barbara street "crew". Always glad to have him and his brother, Josh ,stop by our yard to play with Andy and Krystal. Summers were filled with riding bike, fishing, and just running around the neighborhood. Such fond memories. I will always look back in fondness that he, as well as Josh, were like one of the family. Much love and affection...Take care. ~Fawn.

“ To the Merchant Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Jason, Merdy, as my boys affectionally called him, was such a special young man. He and my son Matthew and my grandson, Brooklyn were best of friends. I remember many days coming home from work and the 3 of them in the back yard playing or working on some project. Brooklyn adored him. Jason was gentle and compassionate with my young grandson and a loyal friend to my boys. I send the deepest condolences from all my family to yours in this difficult time. We all grieve the loss of this beautiful young man. Regards, Jackie Madsen

“ Where to start Merty.... you were always there. Even when you disappeared, you always came back. It hurts that you're not coming back this time. Remembering the good times is all we can do now, till we see you again. I wish we could sit out on our deck all night one more time and just laugh. Sending love, hugs and prayers for all of your family. Lots of love and light always <3 <3 <3
