

Joan M Harbour

June 22, 1930 - March 1, 2024

Joan M. Harbour, 93, of St. Anne's Retirement Community, passed away on Friday, March 1, 2024. Born in London, England, she was the daughter of the late Jack and Elizabeth (Anderson) Vivian. Joan was the wife of the late Maurice "Mike" Harbour who passed away on December 7, 2008.

Joan immigrated to the United States with her husband in 1962. A few years later they became citizens. She worked for Irex in Lancaster as a payroll and billing manager. She was a member of the Knitwit Club. Joan was an avid reader and enjoyed watching old movies and traveling with her husband. Joan also enjoyed spending time with her good friends Linda and Carol.

Joan is survived by many cousins.

The extended family would like to thank St. Anne's Retirement Community for all the care they have proved Joan over the years.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family.

“ I worked with Joan at Irex for a number of years before her retirement. Always a sense of humor and very wise advice for anyone who took the time to chat with Joan. She was delightful and we missed her at the SPI-Irex reunions for the last few years since her mobility became an issue. May God hold her close until we meet again. Karen Herr Drevyanko
