“ My sincere condolences to the family. I only know of Mr. Dissinger through waving out or yelling hi when driving by over the many years here in East Pete. I'll always look over at his chair and remember his smile and wave. Rest in peace.

John brightened up the day for many neighbors in East Pete, myself included. His friendly wave and funny snippets of conversations we had as I went past the house always brought a smile and a warmness to my heart. John will be missed by many that knew him well, I'm sure. But for those of us who were casual acquaintances and passersby, there will be a little less light in our lives come porch sitting weather. Rest in peace, John. Sincere condolences to the Dissinger family.
