“ I hadn't seen Joe in decades when he came by my shop at Saturday's Market in the last year after his daughter Jordan told him to stop by and check me out. It had been so long since we had seen each other that we didn't realize who we were talking to until he read my name on my business card. After that he came by numerous times to visit and purchase my products. We played hockey together and graduated together and it was such a pleasant surprise to reconnect. Now I am stunned and it's hard to even find words. My heart is truly heavy with his passing. My condolences to Jordan, Mike and Matt and to family members I never met.

“ I met Joe 40 years when I moved into the area and graduated with him at DHS. With his quick wit and humor he instantly became one of my best friends. "Harpo" introduced me Street Hockey and the priveledge it was to don the Black Jersey of the Maytown Hockey Team. I didn't know alot about the sport, so he directed me "screen the goalie." Of course I got the punished when I was hit with his blistering slap shot, but saw the ball hit the back of the net much more often and saw his jubilation with both arms raised in the air. My deepest sympathys to entire family and for those that loved and knew him.

“ It is with deep sorrow that we have heard of the death of Joe. We were both his classmates in the DHS Class of 1980. Joe, or "Harpo" as many of his classmates called him was witty and quick to add a word of comic relief in times of silence & stress in class or while passing in the hallways. His laughter was the type that made you laugh & smile even if you hadn't heard what he said. He was often seen with his brother Mike; whom you could tell he was proud of. He talked about his love of cars; but his face beamed when he talked about hockey. He was seen in his black jersey at school and would often talk about his teammates game played the day before; recounting the sound of the slapping sticks, and agonizing over close shots the goalie blocked; or sharing a broad smile when he said his team scored some awesome shots & walked away with the win. There are no words that can heal the pain in your hearts, No wounds that are deeper than those of his family and all those who loved him. We wish we had words to lighten your agony, but sometimes words just aren't enough. Please accept our deepest condolences on your loss. You are and will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers. - - Frank Brommer & Jennifer (Pietsch) Brommer
