“ I’m so sorry that I missed Joyce’s memorial service! I just learned yesterday about her passing. Joyce was a huge early mentor to me. She gave me my first solos in church and was a wonderful children’s choir director! She was so dynamic and vibrant and a huge inspiration. She and Dot used to come and see my shows at the Fulton. She was so supportive. She and her sisters, Dot, Ruth and Helen, meant so much to me and my sisters and to our mother Irene. Joyce came to our fathers funeral in 2007. I’m sure she was a presence at Trillium as long as she was able to be. I didn’t know she was there or I’d have come to visit. She will always be remembered by me. I still sing and act dear Joyce, just not as often ❤️ Rest in peace with beautiful music dear lady! My deepest condolences to the family. Cynthia Charles Eder
