So sorry Dwight, Colton, Dave, and Brenda and the rest of the family. Judy was like a sister to me. I have missed her so much the last few years with not being able to see her. I have so many precious memories of her and I from Junior High school on up and beyond. She Marcia and I were the best of friends. We were always there for each other. If it weren't for Judy and Duck, Doug and I would never have met. We are celebrating our 50th anniversary this April and we owe it all to them. I pray for peace for all of you. Hang on to your memories. They will get you through. God Bless all of you. Barb and Doug Light
