“ I was heartbroken to hear the news of my Aunt June’s passing. 😞 June and Lee were my favorite aunt and uncle. Lots of great memories visiting them growing up. So glad I was able to visit with her at the Masonic Village on my last trip home. She is gone but will never be forgotten. Rest in peace my sweet Aunt June. 🙏

“ So very sorry to read of the passing of your mother, but she lived a good, long earthly life and is now in her forever, heavenly home. I always loved chatting with both your parents at the bank. They were so proud of all of you. May God's love, comfort and peace be near to you at this time. My sympathy to all of the family.
