

Karen L. Fox

October 3, 1949 - September 22, 2023

Karen L. Fox, 73, of York, formerly of Mount Joy, passed away peacefully on Friday, September 22, 2023, at Autumn House West, where she had been residing. Born in Marietta, she was the daughter of the late Lester Eugene and Dorothy (Rapp) Hoffer, Sr. She was the loving wife of David L. Fox, Sr., who passed away in 2008. She will be missed by her brother Lester Eugene Hoffer, Jr., husband of Donna of Manheim; a sister Beverly Jean Raffensburger; her many nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Karen was a graduate of Donegal High School, class of 1967. She worked briefly for Riverview Elementary School as a cafeteria worker. Karen was later hired at Donegal Mutual Insurance as a mailroom clerk and worked there for 40 years until her retirement. She loved going shopping or going out to a restaurant to eat. Karen loved cats and especially loved any opportunity to rescue cats. She was a faithful member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Marietta. But most of all, Karen loved her family and was known as the caretaker of the family.

In addition to Karen's parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a son, David L. Fox, Jr.

Services will be private and held at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Pet Pantry of Lancaster County, 26 Millersville Rd., Lancaster, PA 17603.

“ I worked with Karen for years at Donegal Ins, she was such a sweet person. Karen kept us entertained with her cat tales. Always rescuing another one from the field out back.

“ One of my most recent memories with Karen, when me and her brother took her shopping. For clothes, we would pick out clothes. And she didn't like them, so then she would go and pick out clothes for her baby brother She loved her family ❤️ and saving cats
